Priorities Inventory

On the lines below, describe your ideal teaching partner. You might include characteristics, beliefs, actions, or other things you value in a collaborative partnership.

My ideal teaching partner is someone who...

1. __________________________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________________________

2. __________________________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________________________

3. __________________________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________________________

4. __________________________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________________________

5. __________________________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________________________
Collective Commitments

Dialogue about the priorities in your partnership, and develop a set of collective commitments that will guide your partnership throughout the semester. Record your thoughts below. Within your conversation, you might consider the following:

- Planning
- Hours
- Confidentiality
- Communication
- Feedback

- Record keeping/grading
- Dealing with conflict
- Parent communication
- Response to student requests
- Response to student behaviors

- __________________________________________________________
- __________________________________________________________
- __________________________________________________________
- __________________________________________________________
- __________________________________________________________
- __________________________________________________________